

Wasatch Peak Academy

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

{Monday, September 23rd – Friday, September 27th}

Literacy

This week we are in chapters 4-5 (ish) of Downsiders. In writing, students are continuing through the argumentative paper with their research, writing a thesis statement, and starting on evidence incorporation.

Math

We are close to finishing our first unit in math. Students should be studying 5-10 minutes each day in preparation for their upcoming Unit 1 assessment.

Homeroom

Social Studies: World Geography Quiz this Wednesday. We reviewed on Monday and the students should know what they need to study.

Science: This week, we will be focusing on our Climate lessons.

MS. NEWMAN

Literacy

Working on Latin and Greek roots, Rereading, and working with Expository Texts

Math

First binder Evaluation, kicking off our study of ratios and rates.

Homeroom

Social studies: Connections between ancient Egypt and Israel, as well as working to complete Europe 1 map (Western side) Due Wednesday

Science: Continuing on with our study of the planets and getting into our science books.

MR. LOTT

Literacy

This week we will read various examples of narrative non-fiction to help us understand how natural forces affect earth. We will also discover new vocabulary, spelling words, and begin our research on animal habitats.

Math

Tuesday we will be taking our first unit test. The rest of the week we will be focusing on decimals, fractions, and percent.

Homeroom

Social Studies: This week we will learn what role religion played in Sumer. We will also discover the many inventions that we adapted from the Sumerians.

Science: We will continue to investigate how temperature affects the behavior of molecules.

MRS. MONTALVO

Important REMINDERS

- Don't forget to check Aspire to stay up to date on your child's assignments and grades.
- The first Teton's payment and registration was due last Friday, September 20th.
- Any registration questions, ask Ms. Newman. Any payment questions, ask Mrs. Becky.

Upcoming EVENTS

*Early out Friday, September 27th